A PBLAM OF LIFE

(Revised Version.) Tell me not in mournful numbers Life is but an'c.opty dream! Rouse yourself from idle slumbers, Think up some big plundering

Take it to the Old Man, saying: "There's a slice in this for you:" That's enough; you need not worry. He will surely rush it through.

In the world's broad field of battle. lu our office-holding life. We're the bosses' driven cattle. He's the hero in the strife.

Lives of bosses oft remind us We can make our office pay; Truth and honor leave behind us. And still "get there" anyway.

Let us then be up and doing The dear people—'tis our right Still achieving, still pursuing, Grabbing everything in sight. -Shortfellew, in Philadelphia North American.

on the personal property of Andrew Bannister to the extent of $2540.50, judgment with interest thereon in a BAKERY breach of promise suit. Bannister is in charge of the ship chandlery de-partment of the Inter-Island Co. It will be remembered that his case came up in the Circuit Court a few days since. He is a hard working young Hawaiian and the carrying out of the execution will undoubtedly prove a great hardship. The damages granted by the court were $2500, attorney's Thirty Loaves of Bread for One Dollar. fees and commissions $8.50, costs of court $28 and interest from entry of Ah Chong, Joy Hung, Lee Kin alias Ah Kin and Ah Hin alias Leong Hee, have been arrested by Detective Kaapa on the charge of largeny in the second degree. It is understood that one of the members of the gang to which the boys mentioned are said to belong, has given away their depredations. The cigars stolen from a certain store on Fort street a short time ago, have been recovered. In the possession of Ah Kin, one of the boys arrested, was found a letter that, for obscenity and absolute lack of the first principles of decency, is very seldom equalled.
